

Ms. Jyotsna.N. M.A, M.Sc, NET,
Socio-Cultural Psychologist
Asst. Professor

Having completed her Master's from the London School of Economics, Jyotsna has her specialisation in social and cultural psychology. She has had research experience from various organisations, the latest being from Indian Institute of Management Kozhikode. Her research interests include identity processes and formation from a social and cultural context. She has 2 years of research experience in total and has cleared her NET exam in 2019.