A state level, inter college, workshop-cum-training was organised by Internal Quality Assurance cell of Dwaraka Doss Goverdhan Doss Vaishnav College, Arumbakkam, Chennai. About 225 participants from 75 colleges from the state of Tamilnadu participated in the workshop. This training was offered free of cost to the city teachers.

Dr. Haridayal Sharma, Coordinator - IQAC welcomed the gathering. The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. S. Karunanidhi, Professor & Head, Department of Psychology, University of Madras. He emphasised the need for understanding the psychology of students for effective teaching-learning process. Dr. R. Ganesan, principal of the college, in his address suggested that students' diversity should be taken as their strength and should be developed creatively by teachers.

There were three technical sessions on covering the following themes

1. Understanding Dyslexia: Myths, Causes and Science.
2. Types, Consequences & Areas of Dyslexia.
3. Role of Teachers in handling Dyslexic students.

The resource persons were from Madras, Dyslexia Association.

Dr. B.S. Virudhagirinathan, Director, Care Institute of Behavioural Sciences, & visiting senior consultant Clinical Neuropsychologist, Kanchi Kamakoti, Childs Trust Hospital, Chennai, was the chief guest for the valedictory session. He emphasised that dyslexia is a disorder and not disease, and dyslexic students need to be treated with care.

Shri Ashok Kumar Mundhra, Secretary of the college, lauded the efforts of IQAC and suggested to work more on such finer aspects of learning at higher education.
